

NEIL ROBERTSON MUSIC

DIRECT LICENSING POLICY

Dated: April 07 2019

Neil Robertson Music owns the protected sound recordings (Controlled Recordings) available through this website, other online outlets and in CD, cassette, vinyl or other real world form. This includes, but may not be limited to, all recordings released by the artists Neil Robertson and NeRV from Melbourne, Australia.

This music is available for direct licence for public performance, transmission, use of sound recordings and videos for suitable purposes agreed with the owner of the Controlled Recordings. These will typically include film, TV, other public performance and advertising (strictly only for products and/or causes or campaigns agreed to by the artists).

Direct Neil Robertson Music licences are currently negotiated and offered and on a case-by-case basis. Please contact Neil Robertson Music by email neilrobertsonventure@gmail.com. Direct licensing agreements must be negotiated in writing and signed by both parties upon agreement. Contact Neil Robertson on the above email for further information.

All direct licences offered are non-exclusive. An option open to prospective licensees is to obtain a PPCA collective licence (www.pcca.com.au). However, it is for the licensee to choose which licensing route they would prefer to pursue.

Neil Robertson Music is a small, boutique music licensing company and payment of due licensing fees and royalties can be made through APRA (www.apra.com.au) for song copyright and use and PPCA (www.pcca.com.au) for blanket licensing of Controlled Recordings if the licensee chooses not to pursue a Direct Licence with Neil Robertson Music.

Detailed information about music licensing requirements for potential licensees is available at the above websites.

Cheers
